
How Do I Look Up Articulated Courses Between a Community College and UC San Diego on Assist.org?

Hi! This video is presented by the ERC Peer Advisors and it will address how to look up articulated courses between a community college and UC San Diego.

WHAT IS AN ARTICULATED COURSE?

- An articulated course is a course that can be used to satisfy requirements (major, minor, and/or general education) at UC San Diego.
- Not all transferable courses are considered articulated courses.
- Before taking courses at another institution, contact the respective UC San Diego departments or ERC Advising first

An articulated course is a course offered at another institution that has been pre-screened by UC San Diego and is considered to be equivalent or the same as a specific UC San Diego course. These courses, once taken and transferred to UC San Diego, will automatically be considered the same as the specific UC San Diego course and can be used to satisfy major, minor, or general education requirements.

Keep in mind, not all transferrable courses are considered articulated courses.

Though articulated courses are pre-approved, students are encouraged to verify with their respective UCSD Departments or ERC Academic Advising on articulated courses as some majors have strict guidelines on articulated course counting towards requirements.

WHAT IS A TRANSFERABLE COURSE?

- A transferable course is a course that can be transferred to UC San Diego for credit.
- A course that is considered “UC transferable” is accepted for credit at any University of California campus.
- It does not guarantee that the course can be used to fulfill a major, minor, or general education requirement.

A transferable course is a course from another institution that can be transferred to UC San Diego for credit.

A UC transferable course means it is accepted for credit at any University of California campus.

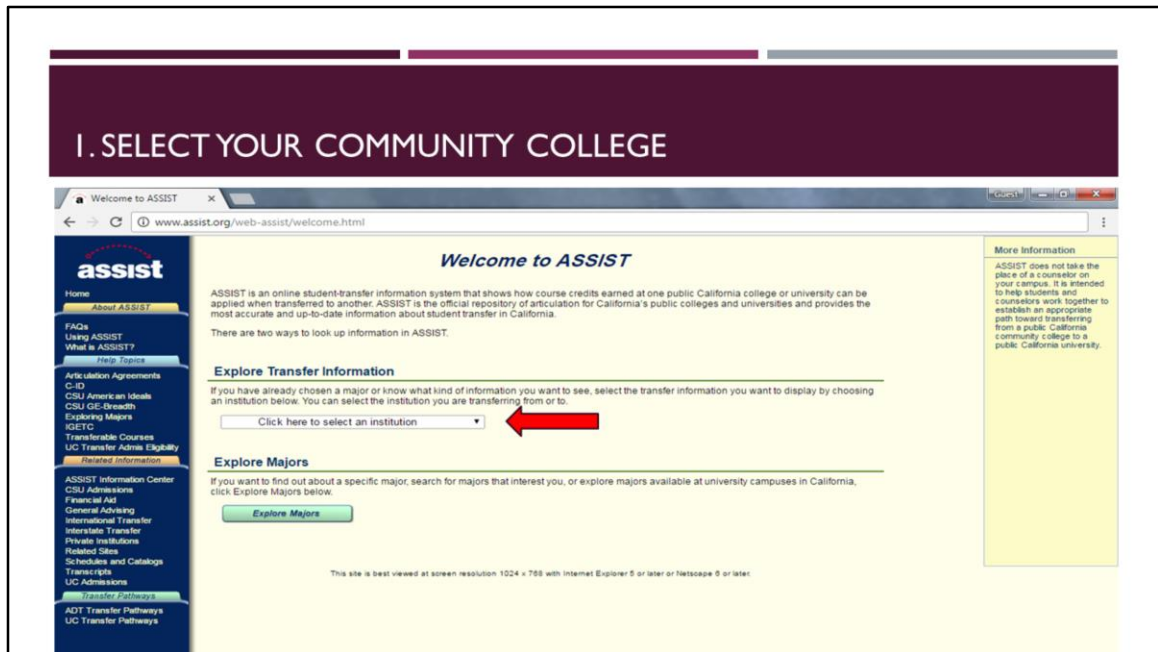

This does not guarantee that the course can be used to fulfill a major, minor, or general education requirement at UC San Diego. It just means you will receive credit for taking the course once you complete it and transfer it to UC San Diego.

WHAT IS ASSIST.ORG?

- Assist.org is a resource students can use to determine how courses from one California institution can be transferred to another. It provides information on:
 - Articulated Courses
 - Transferable Courses

Assist.org is a website that displays how course credits earned at one California institution can be applied when transferred to another California institution. It provides information on transferable courses and articulated courses.

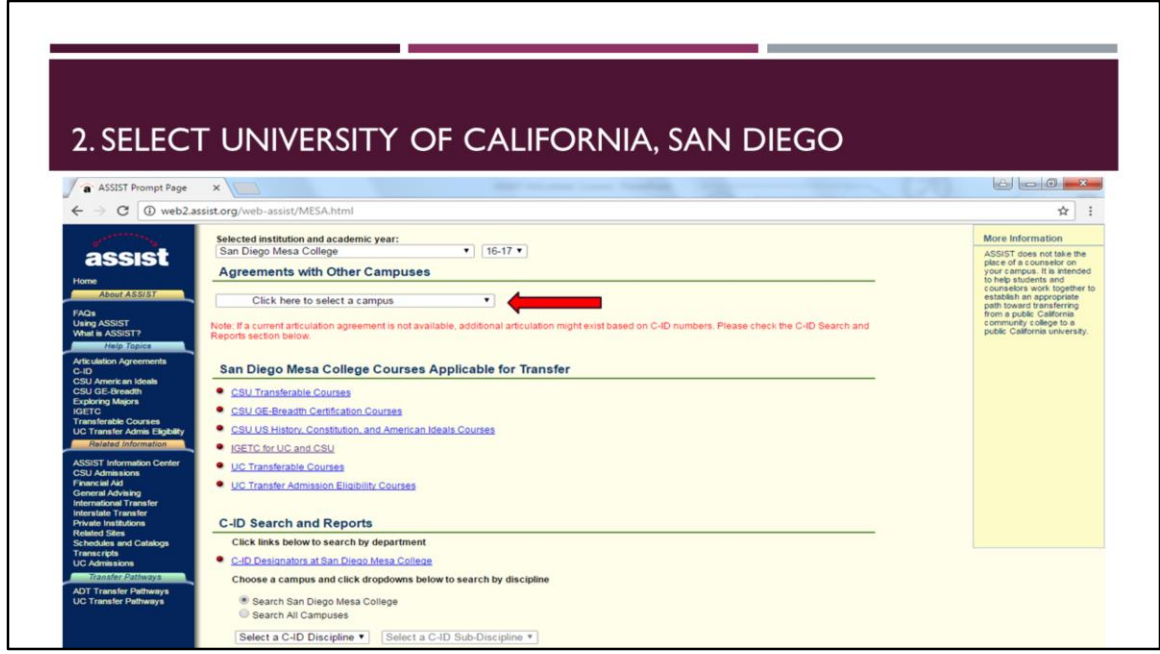

In this video, we will only be focusing on articulated courses and how to search for them on Assist.org.

To look up articulated courses, visit <http://assist.org>

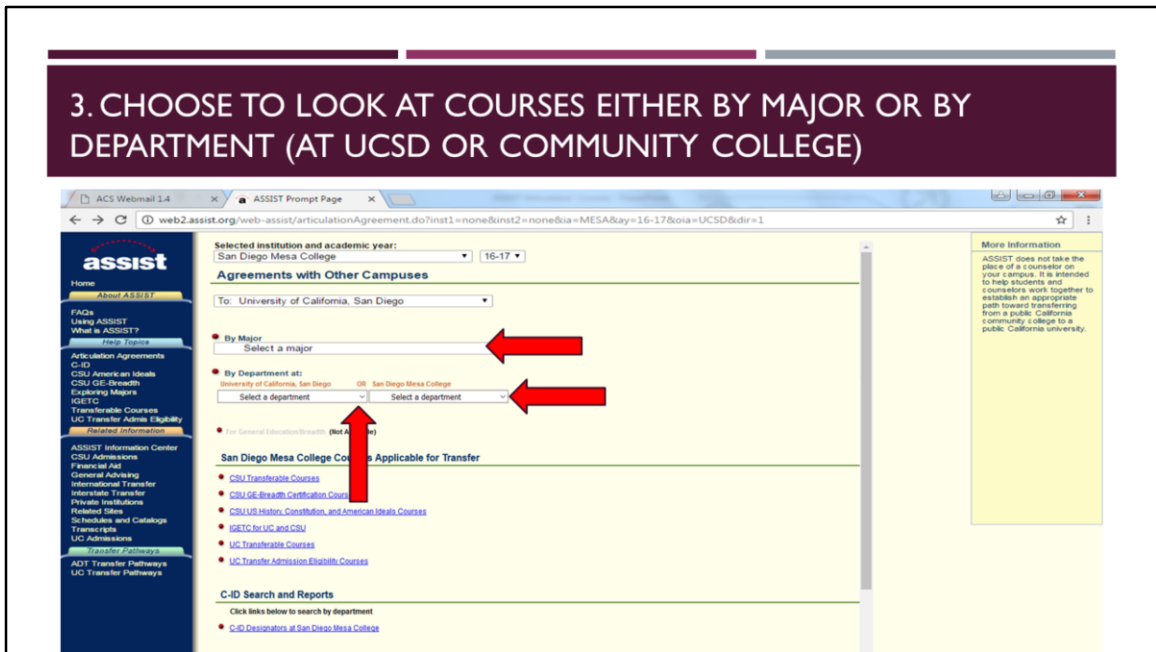

For this example, we will be looking up articulated courses between San Diego Mesa College and UC San Diego.

On the “Welcome” page, click on “Click here to select an institution” and select the community college where you have taken courses or plan to attend. We’ll select San Diego Mesa College.

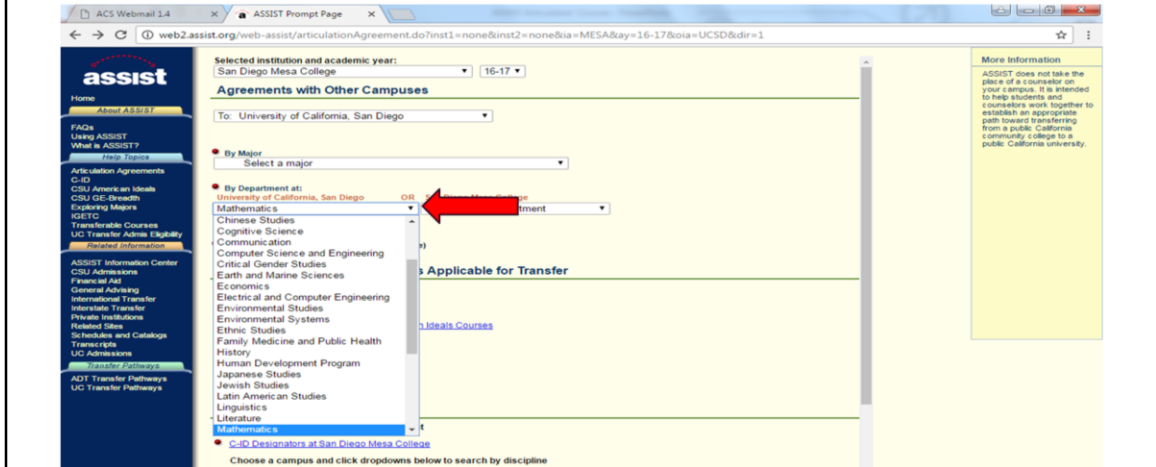

Once you have selected your institution, under the Agreements with Other Campuses header, use the drop down menu that says “Click here to select a campus” to select UC San Diego

3. CHOOSE TO LOOK AT COURSES EITHER BY MAJOR OR BY DEPARTMENT (AT UCSD OR COMMUNITY COLLEGE)

After you have selected UC San Diego, you can search for articulated courses either by UC San Diego major or by the department at your community college or by department at UC San Diego.

3. CHOOSE TO LOOK AT COURSES EITHER BY MAJOR OR BY DEPARTMENT (AT UCSD OR COMMUNITY COLLEGE)

For this example, we will be looking at courses that articulate to Mathematics courses at UC San Diego.

More Information
ASSIST does not take the place of a counselor on your campus. It is intended to help students and counselors work together to establish an appropriate path toward transferring from a public California community college to a public California university.

Your results page will look like this if there are articulated courses available.

4. HOW TO READ RESULTS

The screenshot displays the ASSIST.org interface with a report titled "Articulation Agreement by Department Effective During the 16-17 Academic Year". The report is for UC San Diego, from San Diego Mesa College, 16-17 General Catalog, Quarter 16-17, Semester.

The main content area shows a table of articulation agreements. A red box highlights the first row:

Community College Course	UCSD Course	UCSD Credits
PATH 10A Calculus I (4)	MATH 121 Basic Techniques of Applied Calculus I	(3)
PATH 10B Calculus II (4)	MATH 122 Basic Techniques of Calculus II	(3)

Additional text in the report includes: "Articulation Agreement by Department Effective during the 16-17 Academic Year Based on the 16-17 UC Transfer Course Agreement".

Sometimes there is a one-to-one articulation between community college courses at UCSD courses. Other times, there may be more than one option of courses you can take that will articulate to a particular course at UC San Diego. It is also possible that a combination of courses at the community college must be taken to be equivalent to one course at UC San Diego.

4. HOW TO READ RESULTS

The screenshot shows the ASSIST.org website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Print This Report' and 'Change Report of Institution' buttons. Below that, the report title is 'Articulation Agreement by Department Effective During the 16-17 Academic Year'. The report is for 'To: UC San Diego' and 'From: San Diego Mesa College', '16-17 General Catalog', 'Quarter: 16-17 General Catalog', 'Semester:'. The main content area is titled 'Articulation Agreement by Department Effective during the 16-17 Academic Year Based on the 16-17 UC Transfer Course Agreement'. It lists several courses and their equivalents. A red box highlights the entry for MATH 10B, which requires both MATH 121 and MATH 122 at San Diego Mesa College. The table below shows the following data:

UCSD Course	UCSD Description	San Diego Mesa College Course	San Diego Mesa College Description	San Diego Mesa College Credits
MATH 10A	Calculus I	(4) MATH 121	Basic Techniques of Applied Calculus I	(3)
MATH 10B	Calculus II	(4) MATH 121 & MATH 122	Basic Techniques of Applied Calculus I and Basic Techniques of Calculus II	(3)
