

Rules for S.C.E.R.C. Grills

- Organization's Advisor is responsible for checking out Grill(s) at the ERC Dean of Student Affairs Office and signing the release form. Advisor must be present at event at all times.
- If event is going to be past the Office hours or on the weekend, then the Advisor must sign out the Grill and get the key and propane one business day before the event.
- Grills and all borrowed utensils must be cleaned and returned within 1-2 hours of the end of the event
- Any damages to grills should be reported to your Organization's Advisor. A damage report sheet should be filled out immediately and signed by Advisor and delivered to SCERC at the same time as returning the grills. Any damage reports will be reviewed by SCERC on a case by case basis.
- In the occurrence of damage to grills, following the case's review by SCERC, we reserve the right to:
 - Revoke your Organization's right to use the grills
 - Reduce your Organization's funding from SCERC toward future events
- Need to fill out form found in office, in order to borrow Grills. Must sign your group and event in on sheet at least 3 weeks before date of event.
- SCERC waives all responsibility if injury occurs while using the Grills.
