Second Writing Assignment: Final Draft
MMW 15, Summer 2015

Length: 7-8 pages
Due: Wednesday, September 2 (Week 5)

Below is a list of the criteria your final draft should meet. Most important are the substantive aspects, such as the scholarly nature of your sources (see “Sources for Research Papers handout), the quality of your thesis and the appropriateness of your evidence, but the mechanical concerns—spelling, grammar, and so forth—also matter. You must also be very careful to give credit to all of your sources, even those you do not quote or paraphrase directly. Make sure that you check your final draft against both this handout and the MMW Program Policies.

Your introductory paragraph(s) should include (Writer's Reference, RW or Easy Writer, 5th ed.):
- An indication of your topic (WR, 15-16; 358-359 or EW)
- The scholarly and historical context of your research (MMW 15: 1900CE to present)
- The problem and question you are addressing
- Your thesis statement (WR, 9-13; 102)
- An indication of the significance of your topic and question (the “so what?”) (WR, 11)

Your question should be (WR, 359-362):
- Open-ended
- Amenable to scholarly research
- Appropriate to the course concerns and historical period covered in the course

Your thesis should be (WR 102-105):
- An answer to the question that you pose
- Arguable
- Amply supported with evidence

Your concluding paragraph(s) should (WR 20):
- Summarize your argument
- Reiterate and elaborate on your “so what?”
- Explain the significance of your thesis

When presenting your evidence you should (WR 102-105 or EW 39-44):
- Explain which of your claims each piece of evidence supports
- Explain how the evidence supports your claims
- Acknowledge and cite your sources clearly and correctly, whether you quote or paraphrase an author’s words or merely draw upon an author’s ideas
- Use direct quotations sparingly and only when necessary
- Make sure that all of the information you present is factually correct
When addressing counterarguments or alternative interpretations you should (WR, 97-98; 105-106 or EW):

- Acknowledge the scholars whose positions differ from yours
- Explain how each counterargument differs from your own claims
- Present the evidence that supports each counterargument
- Rebut each counterargument (i.e., explain why your claims are stronger)

Overall, your paper will succeed if you:

- Clearly define the historical and geographical context of your topic
- Situate yourself within an ongoing academic conversation
- Present a persuasively argued point that is amply supported with relevant evidence
- Acknowledge points of view other than your own
- Discuss the significance of your claims
- Organize your paper well and write with your readers’ needs in mind (e.g., by providing transitions and topic sentences to help readers to follow your train of reasoning, defining unfamiliar terms, providing vivid, concrete examples, and so forth)
- Check the MMW Program Policies for all formatting issues

Your final draft should be 7 to 8 pages in length, not counting your Works Cited list. Please use 12-point, Times Roman type, and make sure that your type is dark enough that your TA will actually be able to read it.

What to submit with your Final Paper:

Handwritten and signed Statement of Academic Integrity.

At the end of your Works Cited Page, you must write (by hand) the EXACT text below and sign (by hand) and date this statement. Your paper will NOT be accepted until this is completed.

“I attest that I am submitting my own original work in this assignment. Where I have included the words or ideas of others, I have cited this material according to the guidelines stated in the MMW Program Policies and A Writer’s Reference, 280-284; 400-403 or Easy Writer, 201-203.”

Signature                        Date

Works Cited (WR, 470 or EW, 254)

Your paper must have a list of Works Cited that includes complete MLA-style citations for all of the works you cite in your paper. You do not have to include entries for works you do not cite, but bear in mind that “citation” means not only direct quotations and paraphrases but also all statements of observation and opinion that are in your own words but that are indebted to other authors for their content. In other words: when in doubt, give credit to your sources.

Photocopies/Printouts

You must include a printout or photocopy of each piece of information or analysis that you cite, including the title page that includes the author’s name and title of publication. On each of the photocopies/printouts, highlight the area(s) where you found the material that you cite in your paper, and label each highlighted area with the number of the page on which you cite the material. Submit them in the order in which they appear in the paper.

Portfolio of Previously-Graded Work
When you turn in your final draft, you must also turn in your graded Prospectus on which your TA has commented.

Turnitin.Com
You must submit your final paper to Turnitin.com within 24-hours after your section time. Submission instructions will be provided in a separate handout.

This assignment, like all assignments written for MMW, must adhere to all of the guidelines set out in the MMW Program Policies. This assignment, the last of two writing assignments, will be worth 15% of your final grade. You must have completed both writing assignments in order to pass the course. Please consult with your TA if you are unsure what to include in your final folder. Good luck!
