Circuit

Circuit is an Eleanor Roosevelt College Organization which focuses on providing ERC undergraduates with an opportunity to publish their undergraduate work. Furthermore, Circuit provides an opportunity for students to be a part of a journalism staff that not only produces the journal, but also plan events such which can bring ERC students opportunities to improve their writing or to get involved with on-campus research.

Ellie's Transfers and Commuters (ETC)

Just because you may be living off campus doesn't mean that you aren't an essential part of the ERC community! ETC is designed to help transfer and commuter students get acquainted and stay involved at ERC through events both on and off campus such as free breakfasts, movie nights, barbeques and other activities.

I-House Planning (I-HOP)

I-HOP brings together U.S. domestic and international students to build community through social, cultural, and educational events in I-House and within the local community. I-House residents are encouraged to actively participate in I-HOP though all students are welcome to join I-HOP events. Past activities include the award-winning Japanese Coming of Age Ceremony, campus escape room, and beach bonfires.

Planning at Raza (PaRa)

PaRa provides an opportunity for residents to become more engaged within the community and work together to create events and activities so that they can become future leaders of the Raza Living and Learning Community (LLC). Activities include community visits to Chicano Park and Barrio Logan, carne asada barbecues, and shopping trips to the farmer's market.

Mxntorship at Raza (MaRa)

MaRa connects continuing RAZA-dents with new students to foster mutual growth as a student and as an individual at UC San Diego. Activities include film screenings, scholarship application workshops, and academic success coaching.

Welcome Week Committee

These students are responsible for executing the Welcome Week activities and helping new students acclimate to the University. These students serve as the main liaison in the all-campus UnOlympics competition between the seven undergraduate colleges.

Email: ercstudentlife@ucsd.edu

Spirit Week Committee

A committee of students who plan Spirit Week and Homecoming events. These students are responsible for ensuring that Eleanor Roosevelt College is proudly showing their Triton spirit! Activities include designing merchandise, participating in banner and chalking competitions, and attending athletic events.
